Product Change Notification

PCN 2019-10-2061-1

Dear Customer,

With this letter we inform about the following product changes of our

SMD and THR PCB terminal blocks 2061 series

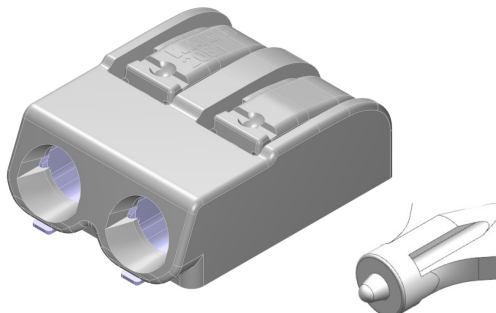

1. Change Reason
2. Dimensional changes
3. Change of item numbers
4. Technical data and certifications
5. Changeover schedule

1. Change Reason

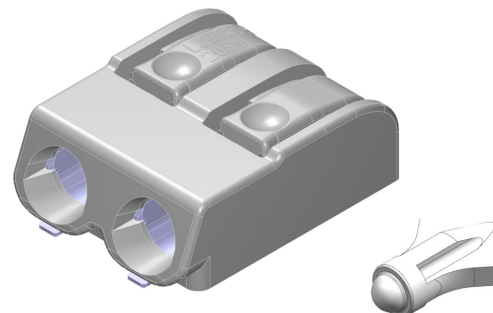

In order to optimize the operation of 2061 series, the shape of push buttons and the operating tools will be changed. With the optimized geometry the tool is guided more accurately to the intended spot of operation thus ensuring an easier handling.

2. Dimensional changes

Current Version

New Version

3. Change of item numbers

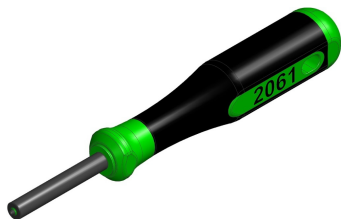

Terminal blocks:

Item numbers of the PCB terminal blocks 2061 (e.g. 2061-601/998-404) remain unchanged. New versions can be identified by the revised 8 digit ident-number (additionally shown on delivery note, invoice and packaging label), starting with 604, as follows:

WAGO Item Numbers	WAGO ID Current Version	WAGO ID New Version
2061-601/998-404	60257165 & 60262280	60411458
2061-602/998-404	60257166 & 60261901	60411459

2061-1662/998-404	60326362	60411471
2061-1663/998-404	60256413	60411472

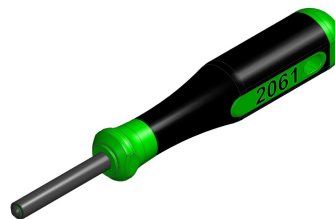

Operating tools:

Current Version

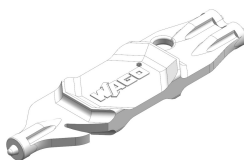

206-861

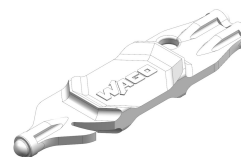

New Version

206-866

2061-189

2061-190

4. Technical data and certifications

The overall dimensions and technical data of the new versions are identical to the current versions. They can be used in combination with the existing connecting links. UL and EN/IEC certification data are identical and certifications remain valid.

5. Changeover schedule

The changeover is scheduled for the next 6 months and will be executed without further notice.

Although the new versions can be operated with the old operating tools 206-861 and 2061-189 we recommend to order the new tools 206-866 or 2061-190 in advance and use them for optimized handling of the new versions after the changeover!

With best regards,
