

OVERVIEW

This set of extremely comfortable, full size headphones are perfect for all types listening, but absolutely excel when used for a long duration of time. The reason these are great for long periods of listening is that they combat the two main culprits of ear fatigue; harsh sounds and uncomfortable ear cups. Some potential uses of these headphones include; monitoring, DJ use, and casual/high-fidelity listening. The Large 50mm diaphragms provide excellent low frequency reproduction, incredible fullness, and fantastic articulation.
