Protect yourself, your employees, customers, patients or guests from infections: with the new and innovative Antimicrobial Labels from Avery Zweckform!

Overview over your advantages:

99.9% antimicrobial

- Removes 99,9% of all viruses, bacteria and germs.
- Tested in acc. with ISO 22196 (mod.) by independent institutes.

All-round protection

- The antimicrobial effect is activated by visible light and oxygen.
- This ensures a quick, permanent and long-lasting self-sterilizing effect.

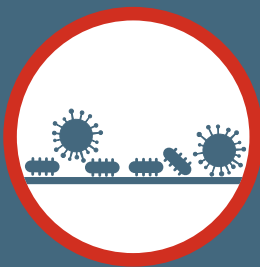

Long-lasting effectiveness

- Permanent effect for at least 1 year.
- Offers long-term and continuous protection, also when the film is cut to size.

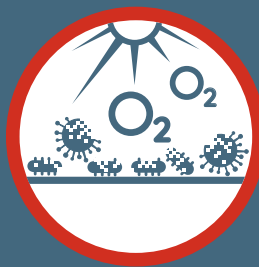

Hard-wearing

- Water and tear proof
- Resistant to oil, cleaning agents and disinfections. Temperature resistant from -20°C to +80°C (white to +60°C)
- This won't restrict the antimicrobial effect.

Contamination of surfaces with bacteria, viruses, fungus and spores

The effect of the antimicrobial film is activated by visible light and oxygen

Germs are quickly and effectively deactivated – for complete and permanent hygiene

Can you print on the label?

The labels can be printed with all standard b/w laser printers or colour laser printers. However: less is more! If possible, the label should not be printed full face. Otherwise, the toner of the laser printer would cover the antimicrobial surface of the label completely or to such an extent that the effectiveness is not given any more in that area.

You can find free design templates in our software Avery Design&Print under avery-zweckform.eu/print

for laser printers

- Film label with 99,9% antimicrobial effect: removes 99,9% of all viruses, bacteria and germs
- Permanent and long-lasting self-sterilizing effect, non-toxic, safe for health
- Permanent adhesion, suitable for doors, desks, books, light switches and many others
- Label can be partly printed or cut into different sizes without loss of effectiveness
- Antimicrobial effect clinically tested & proven by independent institutes
