Dear Customer,

Regarding: UL294 Approval

As a pro-active vendor Storm Interface is giving notice to our customers that the UL294 marking has been withdrawn from Storm's range of StrikeMaster keypads.
This change is implemented with immediate effect.

The following part numbers are affected:

DE1KT10X
DE2KT10X
DEPLXT20X
DR2KT20X
DR2KW20X

Please note: An X in the part number represents any character or additional sequence of characters.

Required action: Please remove any reference to UL294 from all websites and customer facing documents.
The covering email sent with this Product Notice includes copies of updated brochures for the above mentioned part numbers.

We do apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause.

No other Storm products or part numbers are affected by this Product Notice.

Yours sincerely,

Storm Interface
